Summer 2018

On Saturday, July 7, the sounds and scents of sizzling, grilled brats will fill the air outside the Mill St. VFW Hall. Come and enjoy brats on a bun with sauerkraut from Morse’s Sauerkraut & European Deli while sampling a variety of craft beers from local breweries, including Waldoboro’s own Odd Alewives Farm Brewery.

At 7:00 pm, the Live Auction with John Bottero of Thomaston Place Auction Galleries will begin. Many exciting auction items are available at the Live and Silent Auction and include theater tickets, Pie Club (one pie /month for 12 months), a Keurig, restaurant gift certificates and so much more. There's certain to be something for every taste and budget. It will be a full evening of food, brews and fun to benefit the Waldoboro Public Library.

Mark Your Calendar! Brats & Brews from 3:00– 6:30 p.m. Live Auction begins promptly at 7:00 p.m.

REMAINING PROGRAMS IN 2018 SPEAKERS SERIES

TUES., SEPT. 11, at 7:00 pm: Mac Smith– Mainers on the Titanic
Mac Smith spent ten years extensively researching the lives and stories of passengers on that ill-fated ship who had ties to Maine.

The annual dinner/meeting of The Friends of the Library will precede the program at 5:30 pm. All are welcome to attend!

TUES., OCT. 16, at 7:00 pm: Lisa Steele- Gardening with Chickens
The Waldoboro Garden Club is co-hosting this program.

Look for the Friends of the Library tent on Waldoboro Day where the Friends will be selling raffle tickets for ten pounds of lobster and/or an L.L. Bean horseshoe set ($100 value). Tickets are $1 each, six for $5.

Tickets will also be available at the Library, and at these events:

Art Walk, June 9; At the polls, Election Day, June 12;
Waldoboro Day, June 16; Brats and Brews/ Auctions, July 7– The winning tickets will be drawn during this event.

JOIN YOUR FRIENDS AND BECOME A FRIEND OF THE LIBRARY!

Just a reminder that membership renewal dues should be in by June 30. Not a member? It's easy to join, just pick up a form next time you're in the library. The dues are nominal; your support of the Library is priceless!!

Help Your Library– Auction Items Wanted!

Again this year, we will be combining the silent auction with a live auction event on July 7 (see front page). The Library is still collecting items for the auctions such as furniture, art, firearms, boats, weekend getaways, collections of items such as stamps, etc. in addition to the usual offerings of gift certificates, services, and an assortment of goods. If you have something you would like to donate, please call the Library at 832-4484.

Artists of the Month

June/July– The Beach family
August– Bob Schilke
Sept/Oct– Bonnie Brann
Nov/Dec– Roberta Goschke

Specifically, to join the Library's Board of Trustees or serve on a committee.

Meetings are the third Thursday of the month from 5-7. Please attend one to see what it's all about.

Being a Trustee is a great way to support the Library !

Book Group meets on the fourth Monday of every month at 7:00 pm.

June's book is Lightkeeper's Daughter, by Jean Pendziwol, and for July, Little Fires Everywhere, by Celeste Ng.

New members are always welcome!

Libraries Rock- Summer Reading Program

The Summer Reading Program at the Waldoboro Public Library will kick off on June 28 at 10:30 with Puppets with Sir Douglas.

The program will meet every Thursday morning from 10:30-11:30 from June 28 through August 2. Children will set a personal reading goal at the first meeting and work toward that goal throughout the summer.

Special programs will include:

June 28: Sir Douglas and His Puppet Friends

July 5: Library Rocks- rock painting

July 12: 'Earthjams' with musician Matt Loosigian

July 19: Mad Science- 'Sounds Like Science'

July 26: Carol Preston- 'Meet the Orchestra'- Children will be able to try out different instruments.

August 2- Magician Conjuring Carroll

We invite all children entering kindergarten through sixth grade to join us for a summer of fun reading and more! Registration forms may be picked up at the front desk.

Story Hour for preschoolers is every Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. Stories and crafts with Miss Paula.

Midcoast Music Together- Music and movement for little ones ages birth to 5 years led by Jessica Day. Meets the fourth Monday of the month at 10:30 a.m. Space is limited, so call the Library at 832-4484 to sign up.

Music and Movement for Babies- This special program is also led by Jessica Day and is for babies from birth up to eight months old. This will meet four Mondays, July 9 and 16 and August 6 and 13 at 10:30. Registration is required.

LEGO Club

This fun activity is held twice a month on alternate Fridays from 3:30 to 5:00. Minimum age is six years old. Space is limited to 12, so call the Library at 832-4484 to sign up.

Art Club for Middle Schoolers

Registration has begun for a new art program for children going into grades 7-9. The Art Club will be held on Mondays from 3:30-5:30 for five weeks from July 9 through August 6. Each week will feature a new lesson.

Joyce Steel, a Waldoboro artist and teacher, will be the instructor.

This program is free of charge but is limited to 15 participants. Please call the Library at 832-4484 to register. Registration is open until July 2.

Many thanks to the anonymous donor whose generous gift makes the LEGO Club, Art Club, and the music program for babies possible for our young ones.

Thanks, too, to the Friends of the Library who raise the funds to support the Summer Reading Program and Midcoast Music Together every year.

Paint the Town, a delightful plein air event and fresh paint auction, will be Saturday, Aug. 4, at 995 Main St. in the Village. Preview and reception are at 4:30 pm, auction at 6:00.

The annual one-day event, which provides artists with an opportunity to paint from unique and private vistas around the town, will culminate in a reception featuring live music, local wines and fresh lobster rolls, followed by a live auction of the day's compositions.

Artists can download registration forms from Paint the Town Waldoboro's Facebook page or pick one up at the Library.

Proceeds benefit the Waldoboro Public Library, the Lions' Club, and the Waldoboro Volunteer Firemen's Association. To request a registration form via email or FMI contact Natalie Masse at nkmasse@yahoo.com.

Bikes For Books

King's Solomon Lodge of Masons of Waldoboro is once again donating six bicycles to the Library for a summer reading incentive program. For every five picture books or two chapter books read, the reader receives a raffle ticket toward a bike with the drawing on August 18. All children are welcome to try for a bike!

Funding for the bikes is through King Solomon's Lodge, the Grand Lodge of Maine, and community donations. If interested in helping the Masons with a contribution to this popular program, please contact Al McKay at 380-1582.
